3. Create an account

Step 2: Create an API key

1. Once logged in, find the 'API Keys' section on the left nav bar

2. Click the 'Create new secret key button'

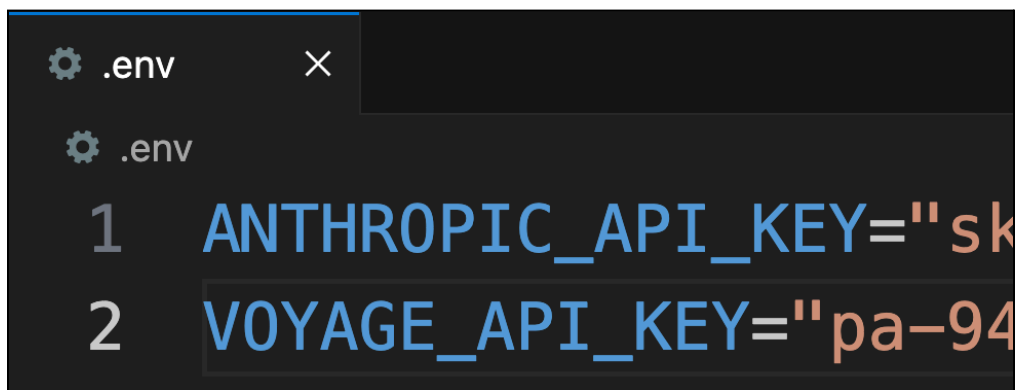

3. Enter a key name of “Test Key” then click ‘Create secret key’

4. Copy the key

Step 3: Add the key to your “.env” file

1. In your editor, find your “.env” file that’s next to your notebook.
2. Add in your api key, assigning it to a variable named exactly “VOYAGE_API_KEY”

A screenshot of a code editor window showing a file named ".env". The editor has a dark theme. The first line of code is "1 ANTHROPIC_API_KEY='sk-ant-..." and the second line is "2 VOYAGE_API_KEY='pa-94...". The second line is highlighted with a light blue selection box. The editor also shows a tab for ".env" with a close button (X) and a settings gear icon.

1 ANTHROPIC_API_KEY="sk-ant-...
2 VOYAGE_API_KEY="pa-94..."
